PEOPLE TELL US: Reducing crime in Minneapolis happens block by block. But it takes concerned citizens to get started.

"We watch out for one another. If we see something that looks suspicious and unusual we call 911 for police assistance."
John C.

"When I moved in five years ago no one welcomed me. I started a block club with my neighbors who are now my friends. . . we help each other out."
Yvonne G.

"Our neighbors worked with CCP/SAFE and other city departments on a party house we had on our street. It's back to being a quiet neighborhood."
Suzanne S.
