

How to Comment on Minneapolis 2040 - The City's Draft Comprehensive

From March 22 through July 22, 2018, the City will be reaching out to the Minneapolis community to discuss this draft plan and to encourage review and feedback. Be sure to sign up for updates and follow us on Twitter

 Follow us @Mpls2040 to learn about specific opportunities to engage. This plan is truly a draft. Following the close of the public comment period on July 22, City staff will make revisions to the plan based on public feedback and present a final draft to the City Planning Commission and City Council in Fall 2018.

Host a Meeting-in-a-Box

You can host your own conversation and provide feedback on the comprehensive plan. Meeting-in-a-Box is a civic engagement method designed for use by community groups, neighborhood associations, or friends to gather at a convenient time and location to share their ideas and proposals for the future of the city. In addition to in-person engagement opportunities, we also invite feedback on the draft plan via this web site through the following methods:

Comment on individual draft policies

Under each draft policy is a green comment box. We encourage you to use these boxes for comments that are specific to a particular draft policy, so that we can be certain we know which draft policy your comment
