
APPEALS OF THE PLANNING DIRECTOR OR HERITAGE PRESERVATION COMMISSION APPLICATION

599.180. Appeals of decisions of the planning director. All findings and decisions of the planning director, building official, or other official involved in the administration or the enforcement of these heritage preservation regulations shall be final subject to appeal to the heritage preservation commission, except that appeal of a decision involving a violation of Title 5 of the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances, Building Code, or Title 12 of the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances, Housing, shall be as provided in the written order. Appeals may be initiated by any affected person by filing the appeal with the planning director on a form approved by the planning director and shall be accompanied by all required supporting information, as specified in section 599.160, and fees as specified in section 599.175. All appeals shall be filed within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the decision. Timely filing of an appeal shall stay all proceedings in the action appealed. No action shall be taken by any person to alter the property in any manner until after a final decision has been made by the heritage preservation commission, unless the planning director certifies to the commission, with service of a copy to the applicant, that a stay would cause imminent peril to life or property, in which case the proceedings shall not be stayed. The commission shall hold a public hearing on each complete application for an appeal as provided in section 599.170. All findings and decisions of the commission concerning appeals shall be final, subject to appeal to the city council as specified in section 599.190.

599.190. Appeals of decisions of the heritage preservation commission. All decisions of the heritage preservation commission, except decisions to commence designation studies pursuant to a nomination of property, designations, and transfers of development rights, shall be final subject to appeal to the city council and the right of subsequent judicial review. Appeals may be initiated by any affected person by filing the appeal with the planning director on a form approved by the planning director and shall be accompanied by all required supporting information, as specified in section 599.160, and fees as specified in section 599.175. All appeals shall be filed within ten (10) calendar days of the date of decision by the commission. No action shall be taken by any person to alter the property in any manner until expiration of the ten-day appeal period and, if an appeal is filed pursuant to this section, until after a final decision has been made by the city council. Not less than ten (10) days before the public hearing to be held by the city council to consider the appeal, the planning director shall mail notice of the hearing to the property owner and the surrounding property owners who were sent notice of the public hearing before the commission. The failure to give mailed notice to individual property owners or defects in the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings, provided a bona fide attempt to comply with this section has been made.
