The neighborhood group notification date is not an application deadline. City staff may take up to 15 business days to review an application for completeness. Applications will be noticed and scheduled for a public hearing when all required application materials have been reviewed and deemed complete by staff.

Recommendations of the Planning Commission on public hearing items are only forwarded to the Zoning and Planning Committee of the City Council for applications for rezonings, street or alley vacations, Zoning Code text amendments, and comprehensive plan amendments. Planning Commission decisions are final on all other items unless appealed.
