Frey Statement on Breakthroughs in Minneapolis Homicide Investigations

Minneapolis Police Department (MPD) investigators make arrests in 26-year-old cold case, the second in only three months, and recent double homicide in Marcy Holmes

MINNEAPOLIS – Today, Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey released the following statement on today's breakthroughs in two homicide investigations:

“The breakthrough in the recent double homicide underscores our investigators’ ability to swiftly work cases in the wake of tragedy. And the 1993 cold case arrest – the second in only three months – highlights their dedication to proper evidence retention and commitment to pursuing justice for victims. I’m proud of the excellent work of our investigators.”
