Incident Number:

Operator: 911 what is the address of your emergency?

Caller: Hello, I am on the block of 38th and Chicago and I literally watched police officers not take a pulse and not do anything to save a man, and I am a first responder myself, and I literally have it on video camera (clears throat). I just happened to be on a walk so, this dude, this, they fucking killed him so, I ah..

Operator: Do you want to speak to a supervisor?

Caller: I'm recording this. I'm, I mean I'm fucking recording this right now. I'm willing to talk your agents about this so if we need to talk to a supervisor right now or if somebody needs to get into contact with me later on.

Operator: Let me get you over to the supervisor, okay? Hang on one second.
