Operator: Okay.

Caller: [REDACTED].

Operator: [REDACTED] and you're not there right now?

Caller: No, somebody calling. They hear somebody in my parking lot with a truck. (Inaudible—both talking).

Operator: And you...okay, so there, there's a tow truck that's trying to take a vehicle?

Caller: No, no, no somebody steal something from my parking lot.

Operator: How are you getting this information?

Caller: My son, he call me (inaudible). We have a camera, he saw ah, he saw.

Operator: Okay, and can you describe the person who's in the parking lot?

Caller: No, because I'm at HOME DEPOT. My son, he call me from Louisiana.

Operator: Okay, is he able to call 911 himself to give a description to someone?

Caller: He's in Louisiana.

Operator: Okay, so who is at [REDACTED] right now? Is he seeing this on video?

Caller: (Inaudible—both talking.) Yes.

Operator: Okay, can he tell you what the person was trying to steal?

Caller: Well I don't know, he told me just now you know and...

Operator: So, he just said someone, he didn't know who, and he couldn't describe them, or trying to take something but you don't know what?

Caller: Is there anyway you can send the police over there to my house (inaudible).

Operator: No sir, no one else has called. That's why trying to get this information from you.
